[illegible]

Handwritten text in Devanagari script, heavily damaged and torn. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines across the page. The script is dark, likely black ink, on a light-colored, aged paper. The damage is extensive, with large portions of the text missing, leaving significant white space where the paper has been torn away. The remaining text is fragmented and difficult to decipher in many places due to the physical state of the document. Some legible fragments include words like 'महामाया', 'महामाया', 'महामाया', 'महामाया', 'महामाया', 'महामाया', 'महामाया', 'महामाया', 'महामाया', 'महामाया'.

Handwritten text in Devanagari script, likely a manuscript. The text is heavily damaged and stained, with significant portions missing or obscured by white patches. The script is dense and appears to be a form of Sanskrit or a related language. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper. The left margin contains some vertical text, possibly a commentary or a list of items. The main body of text is arranged in horizontal lines, though the lines are irregular due to the damage. The text is difficult to decipher due to the extent of the damage and the complexity of the script.
